BANGALORE DISTRICT.

NOTIFICATION.

The 1st March 1882.

Tenders will be received by the Deputy Commissioner of the Bangalore District up to 17th April for the purchase of the bungalow premises known as the Lal-Bagh Lodge (comprising a drawing-room, a dining-room, a set of six rooms on each side, 4 verandahs and a portico with out-houses and compound) the property of the Mysore Government, bearing Municipal No. 3 and situate on the Lal-Bagh Road to the north-west of the Experimental Farm. Each tender should be accompanied with Rs. 1,500. The highest tenderer will be the purchaser if the amount of his tender accords with the value of the property, and if it is accepted. In case the tenders are low, the Government reserves the right of selling it by public auction. Any person whose tender is accepted, and who refuses to abide by his tender, will be liable to the forfeiture of the amount of his deposit accompanying the tender and also to any loss accruing by the sale of the property on such default.
